

TRETHOWANS OF TRETHOWAN, CONSTANTINE

Trethowan (120 acres) gave name and origin to a family of small gentry. Trethowan farm house is in ruins and shows no traces of ancient work except some granite quoins. A shield over the entrance of the house which is supposed to bear the Arms of Trethowan, apparently three garbs (sheafs of grain frequently used in heraldry) has disappeared. The land is now farmed with Merthen.

The name Trethowan is still found in the Parish today (2010) Gerald Trethowan being the Chairman of the Constantine History Group and a direct descendant.

An Alan Trethouen paid the subsidy in 1327. Henry Trethowyn did homage to the Lord of Merthen for a Cornish acre held in Trethowyn in Knights service.

In 1528 part of Trethowyn was held by the heirs of Trethowyn and part, with Polpry, by Gerveys of Bonallack, both under the Manor of Merthen in Knights service.

John Trethowan of Trethowan married in 1582 Avis daughter of Thomas Enys of Enys by Katherine Reskymer of Merthen. Avis Enys born and chr 15 Sept 1563 at Tremayne St Martin in Meneage. (see Vivians Visitations of Cornwall Enys family entry)

In 1649 and 1660 Thomas Trethowan was living at Trethowan which was his freehold.

In 1726 John Trethowan owned it.

After that the family appears to have sold its land to the Vyvyans of Trelowarren n.b. There is said to be a crock of gold buried at Trethowan, and more than one vain attempt has been made to discover it!

On Monday last, at Feock, Mrs Trethowan, Widow of the late Mr Nicholas Trethowan, aged 59yrs deeply lamented by a large circle of friends.

17th Oct 1887 Thursday

Trethowan- At Goonpiper, Feock, October 15th Leonard, youngest son of John & Clara Trethowan aged 8mths.

7th Nov 1845 Friday

Launch- On Thursday, the 30th ult, a cutter, named the "Diligent", of 75 tons burthen, was launched from the building yard of Mr Trethowan at Falmouth, for service of the Trinity Board. During a visit of several of the elder brethren to that port last summer, they so admired some of the pilot boats recently constructed by Mr Trethowan, that they ordered him to lay down the above cutter, and she is considered by competent judges to exhibit a decided improvement on his other vessels, both in model and workmanship, and to be a beautiful specimen of naval architecture. The ceremony of christening was performed by Mrs Geake of Bodmin, and not by Mrs Trethowan, as stated by a contemporary last week.
